

In light of SF Public Health Order prohibiting the gathering of large groups of people indoors and because we will be moving our office to a new location in mid-August:

All food safety classes and class registration are on-hold until further notice.

We hope to resume registration in October. If you have already paid for a class and/or an exam but have not taken them, we will hold a spot for you in a future class and/or exam.

In the meantime, you may choose to do an online class and exam through an ANSI-accredited exam provider (<https://www.ansi.org/Accreditation/credentialing/personnel-certification/food-protection-manager/ALLdirectoryListing?menuID=8&prgID=8&statusID=4>)
