Student Engagement Coordinator Position Summary - POSSIBLY

The Student Engagement Coordinator reports to Wellness Policy Project Manager, and will be responsible for coordinating youth engagement for the project. This person's primary role is to lead and grow the initiatives for SFUSD's Wellness Policy in consideration with SF soda tax. In addition, the Student Engagement Coordinator will develop internship opportunities for middle and high school students, and will integrate student voice into key Wellness Policy decisions, from community surveys to recommendations and behavior interventions.

The SFUSD Wellness Policy is a district-wide youth committee that provides middle and high school students with a voice and safe space to share concerns, provide feedback, and influence students' school dining experience. Students meet and utilize a design-thinking framework to empathize with their peers, synthesize key insights, define systemic problems, and design and test creative solutions. Funded since 2016, the Wellness Policy is looking for a Student Engagement Coordinator who will grow and expand this program to include a diverse group students from communities that need the most support.

The ideal candidate has experience working with young people from diverse backgrounds, developing innovative projects, leading and designing curriculum-based programs, and sparking students' passions for health equity through wellness activities, environmental change, media, food and food justice. We want someone who is curious, inspired, and inspiring, who will bring energy and enthusiasm to the process and the team.
