Explanation of Service:

Ken Hardy will provide the following services: Cultural humility trainings to 30 groups per year at small and large venues for four years. In addition to the Racial Humility trainings, the Consultant will also offer an annual Racial Trauma Symposium that will be open the community and all staff of the SFDPH. The educational goals of the symposium are to:

1. Provide a racially sensitive, trauma-informed framework that can be used to uncover the hidden trauma wounds that often underpin the health disparities that stifle the lives of African American children and families;
2. Provide tools for effectively assessing and treating the hidden wounds of racial trauma;
4. Provide three strategies that therapists and community-based workers can employ when working from an racially-sensitive, trauma-informed framework; and
5. Provide a conceptual framework that can be used to promote comprehensive understanding regarding how the unrecognized, unexplored, and/or unresolved racially-based attitudes, beliefs, and behaviors of the provider can impede the effective delivery of services to racially traumatized clients.

Ken Hardy was selected under RFP 22-2015 published 7/13/15.
